Uwharrie Bank Announces New Roles

ALBEMARLE, NC, August 10, 2016 – Roger Dick, Chief Executive Officer of Uwharrie Bank announced the recent promotion of two associates.

Michelle Carver, Vice President, has been named Branch Manager of the East Albemarle branch located at 800 NC 24-27 Highway. In her new role, she is responsible for managing daily branch operations as well as the relationship management of consumers and small businesses lending. A graduate of King's College with over 16 years of experience in the financial services industry, Michelle joined the bank in 2000 as a customer service representative. Through the years, she continued to assume additional responsibilities within the lending area and was most recently a mortgage originator. Outside of the bank, Michelle is heavily involved with Esther House of Stanly County, serving as the board president. In addition, Michelle works closely with both the Stanly County Chamber of Commerce and Stanly Regional Medical Center Foundation Forum.

Martha Hughes, Assistant Vice President, has accepted the position as mortgage originator and will also be located at the East Albemarle branch. She will work with new and existing homeowners guiding them through the mortgage process from beginning to end. Martha graduated from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte and has 20 years of experience in various aspects of banking. A member of the Uwharrie Bank team since 1999, she's most recently served as the organization's educational trainer and facilitator. Prior to joining the bank, Martha worked in real estate. Today, she dedicates much of her time outside of work to the City of Albemarle as a member of the city council.

"Our bank is very fortunate to have individuals such as Michelle and Martha, who can take on the responsibility of new roles within the company. We have the utmost confidence in these two and know they will continue making a difference to the communities we serve," Dick said.
